Director of Research Centre for ESG

Abstract

Environmental, Social, Governance (ESG) has become a new face in promoting sustainability nowadays. In this seminar, President Simon Ho will first share with us about applying the responsible management conceptual framework (comprising ethics, stakeholder values, sustainability and governance) to ESG reporting, and how we can integrate these factors into our teaching. Then, Prof. Louis Cheng will share with you the concept of ESG in a simple manner and examples of integrating ESG concepts in teaching. Finally, ESG related reading materials and resources will be provided for your continuous learning and class preparation.
