Under the dual impacts of policy and market forces, the climate information disclosure by publicly listed companies has shifted from “voluntary” to “mandatory”. In April 2024, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange published a consultation summary to enhance climate information disclosure, announcing that it would require listed companies in Hong Kong to disclose climate-related information in accordance with the ISSB's climate-related disclosure standards. In fact, the Hong Kong SAR government has launched a Hong Kong Sustainable Disclosure Roadmap for mandatory compliance in 2028. For listed companies, this will also be a key to attracting investment, upgrading risk management, and building competitive advantages.

Since October, SynTao Green Finance has held seminars on climate disclosure for Public Companies in Beijing, Shenzhen, and Shanghai. The last stop for this seminar series is in Hong Kong and we hope you will join us to learn about the latest development of climate disclosure for Hong Kong listed firms.
